We are currently seeking to use the entry in George Campbell's "Compendia of the World's Languages" to provide material for this language. This material will cover the Detailed Description, Orthography, Phonology and Morphology/Syntax components.

We invite submissions for the other components, or different versions of the above components if you have access to them.

Thanks,

Jim Mason
Director, Rosetta Project
jimmason@longnow.org